As part of VSA Florida's outreach series, "From Backstage to Center Stage" which highlights the accomplishments of well-known performers with disabilities, James Durbin will share his gift of song along with his inspirational story about life with music, autism and Tourette syndrome. Durbin, a singer, songwriter and guitarist from Santa Cruz, California, gained fame following the 2011 season of American Idol and now the lead vocalist for 80's heavy metal rock band Quiet Riot, will be performing in Tampa and Tallahassee.
